

Change of information

Fill in this form to tell us about any change to your bank details.

We process pension payments two weeks before the payment is due to reach your bank account. If your change of bank form is received after your payment has been sent we cannot guarantee that your next payment will go to your new bank account. If you are sending us this form within two weeks of your next payment date it is possible that we will not have updated your information in time and your next payment will be made to your old account.

Once you have filled in this form, please return it to:

Premier
PO Box 108
BLYTH
